PRIDE & EXPERT PROPERTIES PRIVATE LIMITED
(Limited by Shares)

[Incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956]

1. The regulations contained in Table 'A' in the First Schedule to the Companies Act, 1956, shall apply to this Company in so far as they are applicable to private Companies and are not inconsistent with any of the provisions contained in these Articles.
2. The Company is a Private Company within the meaning of Section 2(35) read with Section 3(1)(iii) of the Companies Act, 1956, and accordingly:
  - (a) The right to transfer the shares in the capital of the Company shall be restricted in the manner and to the extent hereinafter mentioned in these Articles.
  - (b) The number of members of the Company shall be limited to fifty, not including:
    - (i) Persons who are in the employment of the Company, and

- (ii) Persons who having been formerly in the employment of the Company were members of the Company and have continued to be members of the Company after such employment ceased, and
  - (c) No invitation shall be issued to the public to subscribe for any shares in or debentures of the Company;

(Provided where two or more persons hold one or more shares in the Company jointly, they shall for the purpose of this Article be treated as a single member.)
3. (i) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, and these Articles, shares shall be under the control of the Board who may allot or otherwise dispose off the same to such persons and for such consideration as the Board may deem fit, but subject always to Article (2) herein.
- (ii) The Board may allot fully paid-up shares to minors represented by their guardians.
4. (i) A share may be transferred by a member or other person entitled to transfer to any relative of such member as defined under section 2(41) of the Companies Act, 1956, or to a member of the Company.
- (ii) On the death of a member, his legal heirs shall be recognised by the Company as joint holders of shares held by the deceased member and register transmission of shares in their names as joint share-holders. However if the deceased member has bequeathed all or any of his shares to any particular person/s, the Board shall recognise only such person/s and register the shares so bequeathed in his/their names.
- (iii) Except as otherwise provided in Article 4(1) hereof, shares in the Company shall not be transferred except to the person/s selected by the Board of Directors of the Company and at the price determined as fair value of the shares of the Company by the Board of Directors.
5. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share for all money (whether presently payable or not) called for in respect of that share and on all shares standing registered in the name of a person for all moneys payable by him or his estate to the Company. However the Board of Directors may at any time, exempt any share wholly or in part from the provisions of this Article.
6. (a) An annual General Meeting of the Company may be convened by giving not less than seven days notice in writing. All other General Meetings may be convened by giving not less than three days notice in writing.

- (b) The provisions of Section 173 of the Companies Act, 1956, shall not apply to this Company.
  - (c) The provisions of section 176(2) of the Companies Act, 1956, shall not apply to this Company.
The proxy shall be a member of the Company.
7. (i) Until otherwise determined by the Company in a General Meeting, the number of Directors shall not be less than two and shall not be more than five including all kinds of Directors.
- (ii) The First Directors of the Company shall be the persons mentioned hereunder:
- (a) MR. MURARILAL SARAOGI
  - (b) MR. OM PRAKASH JAIN
- (iii) The First Directors shall be Directors for life and their office shall not be liable to termination by retirement. The other Directors may be appointed by the Company at a General Meeting without prejudice to the powers of the Board to co-opt one or more persons to be Directors under Articles 7(vi). All Directors other than life time Directors shall retire at the first Annual General Meeting held after their appointment and a retiring Director shall be eligible for re-appointment as director of the Company.
  - (iv) Every life-time director shall be entitled to appoint his successor by will or otherwise and such appointee shall be a life-time director having all the rights of a life-time director including the right to appoint his successor by will or otherwise.
  - (v) No share qualification is necessary for being a Director in the Company.
  - (vi) The Board of Directors shall have power to co-opt one or more person/s as Director/s, but the total number shall not exceed five. The Board also shall have power to appoint alternate Directors and Additional Directors.
  - (vii) In case the Union Government or any state Government or any Industrial Finance Corporation sponsored or financed by any of the aforesaid Government grants loans or accepts participation in the Capital and direction of the Company, such Government or Corporation may, during such period as they hold shares in the Company or the loans granted by them remain unpaid, be entitled to nominate and from time to time substitute in place of such nominee/s one or more directors to protect the interest of such Government or Corporation on the Board of Directors of the Company and such Director/s is/are not liable to retire by rotation.

7. (i) The remuneration of the Directors for attending the meeting of the Board of Directors may be fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time and such remuneration shall be besides travelling, hotel and other expenses incurred by the Directors in India.
(ii) The Board of Directors may appoint one or more of their body as Managing Director/s or Director/s with such designation as the Board may deem fit and fix the remuneration and terms of appointment and duties. The Board shall also have power to vary the same from time to time.
(iii) Subject to the provisions of Section 314 of the Companies Act, 1956, if any Director be appointed to advise the Board of Directors as an expert or be called upon to perform extra services or make special exertions for any of the purposes of the Company, the Board of Directors may pay to such Directors such special remuneration as they may think fit, which remuneration may be in the form of either salary, commission or a lumpsum and may either be in addition to or in substitution to the remuneration specified in Article 7(i) and 7(ii). The Board may reimburse all expenses incurred by any Director in connection with the business of the Company.
8. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, the Board of Directors may, from time to time, at their discretion, borrow or raise funds for the purposes of the Company. The Board of Directors may raise or secure the payment of such sum/s in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as the Board may think fit, and in particular, by the issue of bonds, perpetual or redeemable debenture or any mortgage, charge or other security on the undertaking of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital for the time being.
9. A Director may from time to time and the Managing Director shall upon the request of any Director, convene the meeting of the Board of Directors. Notice of Board meeting shall be given to every Director.
10. No Director shall be disqualified from his office by contracting with the Company nor shall any such contract entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director in any way interested be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract by reason only of such Director holding such office or of that fiduciary relation thereby established, but the nature of his interest must be disclosed by him at the meeting of the Board of Directors at which the contract is first taken into consideration, if his interest is then existing, or in any other case at the first meeting of the Board of Directors after acquisition of such interest.

11. The business of the Company shall be managed by the Board of Directors who may pay all expenses incurred in setting up and registering the Company, and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Companies Act, 1956, or any statutory modifications thereof for the time being in force or by these Articles required to be exercised by the Company in General Meeting, subject nevertheless to the regulations contained in these Articles, to the provisions of the said Act and to such regulations not being inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions as may be prescribed by the Company in General Meeting; but no regulation or provision made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Board of Directors which would have been valid, if that regulation had not been made.
12. Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, the Board of Directors may from time to time entrust to and confer upon the Managing Director or any other Director/s and person/s such of the powers exercisable under these presents by the Board of Directors as they may think fit, and may confer such powers for such time and to be exercised for such objects and purposes and with such restrictions as they may think fit, and such powers may be conferred collaterally with or to the exclusion of and in substitution of all or any of the powers of the Board. The Board of Directors may from time to time withdraw, revoke or vary all or any such powers.
13. No member shall be entitled to inspect the Company's books without the permission of the Board of Directors or to require discovery of or any information respecting any detail of the Company's trading or any matter which is or may be in the nature of trade secret or trade mystery or which in the opinion of the Board of Directors, it will not be expedient in the interest of the members of the Company to communicate to the public.
14. The Common Seal of the Company shall not be affixed to any instrument except by the authority of resolution of the Board of Directors and in the presence of the Managing Director of the Company or any two Directors and subject to the Companies (Issue of Share Certificate) Rules, 1960.
